If the entry in column 1 is less than the entry in column 2, enter "0" in column 3.
 If the highest number previously paid for the fee is greater than the number in column 1, the fee is determined by the number in column 1.
 If the highest number previously paid for the fee is less than the number in column 1, the fee is determined by the number in column 2.
 The highest number previously paid for (total or independent) is the highest number found in the application fee schedule.
 The reduction of independent claims is required by 37 CFR 1.16. The independent claims are reduced to the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule.
 If the number of independent claims is reduced, the fee is determined by the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule.
 If the number of independent claims is not reduced, the fee is determined by the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule.
 If the number of independent claims is reduced and the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule is less than the number of independent claims in the application, the fee is determined by the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule.
 If the number of independent claims is reduced and the number of independent claims in the application fee schedule is greater than the number of independent claims in the application, the fee is determined by the number of independent claims in the application.
